

Learn to Play or Re-discover the Violin with

Caroline Duffner

English born violinist Caroline Duffner, entered the Vienna Music Academy at the early age of 15. She has worked in orchestras all over the world and now lives in Vienna as a teacher and performer.

A student of Kato Havas, she applies this innovative method to her teaching. Caroline uses Havas' "new approach" to learning the violin with students of all ages who are new to the instrument, as well as those who have been playing for years.

"I am surprised how my instrument is opening up. I really enjoy learning about 'The Balances' explained in Havas' 'New Approach.' How rewarding it is to play this way!"
- Karin Schieder, 27 a professional violinist and student.

Rebecca, age 8, is an AIS student who has been studying with Caroline for two years. Her individual weekly class is a wonderful addition to the school's course.
